Meetings & Conferences

Meetings in a historic setting - the ideal place for a successful meeting and to feel completely at home.

Dear guest,

We are delighted that you are interested in Kaspar's House and our event spaces as a conference venue.

In this historic, lovingly restored 17th-century building, combined with modern architecture and technology, you will find optimal conditions for conferences, seminars, presentations, and incentives of all kinds.

Optimal culinary offerings, 100% organic and regional produce, and a beautiful ambiance will satisfy even the highest demands.

In this folder, you will find an overview of our offerings, which we are happy to tailor to your needs.

The Kaspar's House events team is your contact for room allocation and administration. As your partner for all your culinary needs, we look forward to pampering you with our hospitality soon.

We are happy to assist you with any questions or requests.

Your
Kaspars Team

General information

The appointment is the first important step.

Ms. Sophia Neubert from the events team is responsible for arranging the venue.
